A CALL TO DEFEND OUR NATURAL RIGHTS

Restoring the Spirit of 1776: A Call to Defend Our Natural Rights

Join Barbara Loe Fisher, co-founder and president of NVIC, as she eloquently explores how the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence risked everything to defend the natural right to autonomy and other fundamental freedoms.

Drawing parallels between the American Revolution patriots and our fight to defend autonomy in the 21st century, in this fully referenced written and 13-minute video commentary, she explains how and why powerful corporations and institutions are threatening our natural rights today by weaponizing the mandatory vaccination system.

Discover why the principles that fueled the American Revolution are more relevant than ever in the face of this modern attack on autonomy, protection of bodily integrity and freedom of thought and conscience.

This July, honor the legacy of our forefathers by taking a stand against tyranny in all its forms. Watch now and be inspired to make a difference in preserving the freedoms that define our nation.
